SUMMARY

Full-Stack developer skilled in C#, ASP.NET Core, React, and TypeScript. I build fast, secure and scalable web applications with clean architecture, well-designed APIs and user-friendly interfaces. I have experience delivering full-stack solutions, including e-commerce platforms, inventory management tools, secure ASP.NET Core APIs and MVC applications. I work across the entire development lifecycle and have reduced load times by up to 30% on real projects through optimized rendering and API efficiency. I enjoy collaborating in remote teams, writing maintainable code, and using Git/GitHub to keep workflows organized and efficient.
